There was a mod for this, and the fella that was doing it was hung up on leg animation. Do we still have pics of this, and what's the status?

I saw the picks they finished the model and some how managed to get it to walk out of the WF even though it's twice as high! (probably moved the car maker)

Only saw them on old forum think the link was the the evo site.

I'll give $1.45, a Orange Sharpie marker and a Ticket stub to the movie National Security if they can show me pictures of this thing!

I looove those twin rail guns...
