I shut it down. It may be for good, I'm still thinking about it. I know most of you don't care, but for those that do play there I wanted to let you know.

Sorry,
K9

I feel your pain K9, I love my server, I love what I do, I love scripting, but after I got PS Beta I found PS disconnects everyone from the server, and there's no point in keeping it up if everyone disconnects. If I found a solution the server will be up and stay up, but PlanetSide does Own j00.

I guess I'll shut my server down if it's "shit".

Yes, that server is now running a 1.1 ghz processor and stays at 62 FPS all the time.
