Generals isn't worthy of the C&C name and anyone that picks it over Renegade is a non-believer.
WE MUST KILL THE NON-BELIEVERS :twisted:

I play Generals - and i play Renegade....

both are fun games in my opinion.

Which is what i play for - fun

I also play over twenty other games.....

just depends what mood i'm in...

Here is a list of the top contenders for my gaming pleasure...

Falcon 4.0 -
Mechwarrior -
Mech Commander -
M-1 Tank Platoon 2 -
Sims
USAF
FA-18
Harpoon
Alice Neverwinter Nights-
Star Trek Armada -
Rouge Spear -
Aliens/Predators - Rebellion-
Force Commander-

and soon - Planetside

BTW -- Falcon 4.0 is only fan supported now - and the fans were given access to the source code - making the game better than it was when it was first released:

here is an example of what they did:

Generals is good only in the LAN team games, I love Renegade more then any other C&C game, even tho im playing RA2 again. (new custom single player missions). But it would be kewl to have a C&C rpg? lol most likely not,but would be new..

IF ONLY THEY'D RELEASE THE SOURCE CODE FOR RENEGADE

of course, since they haven't released it that could mean that at least some money is still being made off the game.

BTW: since when is Generals a C&C game

You never know - they might --- that's how it was with Falcon - enough fans whined/bitched about it and the makers/buyers released it and they ran with it....

So - send emails to EA -- have Dante, Jon Wilson, Blazer, etc... look at the source -

I vote yes...

(btw - links for falcon 4.0 - <http://www.simmersworld.com/default.php3?page=default>)

You actually think that they would make less money if they released the source code (full or even partial)?

Think about it. By releasing the source code they would make more money. Renegade would become ALOT (ALOT!!!) more modable. This would bring more modders to Renegade.
