I just don't get it, WOL is plagued with sniping only games, I don't see the point of sniping games...What's the fun of renegade without vehicles :rolleyes: , or even destroying enemy buildings, sniping is none of that, you only have 2 character choices and the only building needed is the barracks. This game has so much more potential.

This is only my oppinion

I don't get it, wouldn't it be more fun to sneak into a Nod base, steal a flame tank and create uncontrollable chaos than sit in a bunker waiting for an enemy soldier to walk by.

I did, and you replied with that statement. It's just a mere reiteration.

Here's the deal: Sniping is a unique skill in Renegade that is best gained when you have easy access to snipers (limitless cash) and no worries that someone is going to take out your barracks/HoN. I consider my sniping only server to be one for you to practice for "the real game" when you play on the all-out war servers.
