Well i'm new here.....but mostly every post i've read, there's flaming in it. What's up with that? How come this board has so much hate? That's what's gonna destroy this board.

Just a thought,
Mystro

God knows. It was like this back in the demo days when it was run by westwood, and it's still like this now.

Most of the flameing is harmless fun and if it gets to bad the moderators will always be around to pull it out...

I hate people who just start flameing in the middle of a topic and take it way off topic though that kinda annoys me.

I must tell you I`m really fighting off the desire to flame this thread in big nasty letters just for humor...I'd say these forums actually have less flames than the old ones.

Flames are generally a result of a) someone being retarded w/their initial post or b)someone being retarded in their reply. There are very civil and eloquent ways to tell someone 'get lost you dont know jack' and on the whole it's better for everyone. Hate breeds hate, contempt breeds contempt & intelligent communication owns stupidity in such a way that the person in question & the observers will know who the true 'retard' is (save the never ending blindness of a closed mind).

That will be $100, nice doing business w/joo.

Allow me a moment to share some nice quotes, you can conclude in your own opinion how off topic they truly are.

Better to remain silent and be thought a fool than to speak out and remove all doubt.

Wise men talk because they have something to say; fools, because they have to say something.
Plato

By nature, men are nearly alike; by practice, they get to be wide apart.
Confucius, The Confucian Analects

People do not like to think. If one thinks, one must reach conclusions. Conclusions are not always pleasant.
Helen Keller

Nothing gives one person so much advantage over another as to remain always cool and unruffled under all circumstances.

That is a very good question.

I haven't spent much time on the new forums but I have to agree the old forums were unbelievable for the number of flames going about. I would have to say of every forum I have spent time on the old ren forum really was the worst for flames.

Sad really as I love Renegade :)

Hope this new forum remains as cool as it appears to be at the mo.
