I'm sure most people will say this, so I'll say it first. Rank means nothing!

As for who's the best, there is no "best" person. Someone may be the best technician/Hotwire out there. There are people who rock at sniping, but may suck at using a tank. You can't say who's the best, because in one aspect or another there is someone better. Someone may just play for points, and win by doing nothing but attacking the same building all map, and win. Doesn't mean they're the best.

Are you the biggest fuking moron on the planet?! If you wanna go by rank/who came first the most - it would be uksrene aka lurker who came first 4 or 5 times.

There isnt a single best player, there are players who are good at certain aspects of the game, sniper, tank commander, orca fighter etc..

To re-iterate, you are a fukin moron. Get off my server

You can't really judge who is the best, because you havn't played everyone. RAnk means nothing, it sucks. If you dont paly for a while, your rank goes up, even if you are amazing. Different people are better at different aspects of the game.

Rank means nothing. It just means a lot of pointwhoring.

The Pit frequently have a lot of good players on it and no one claims he or she is the best player in Renegade. We even tried to vote for the best in catagories but still cannot decide who is the best.

Only a complete moron would answer this truthfully. I could easily say I'm the best all around player because I haven't seen other people play all around style. to be honest...all I can really say is that I'm the best defender I've encountered in recent years...back in the day there were lots of people tons better than me...but I've gotten better since then and haven't run into them lately...

So yeah...I cant really say anyone isn't the best at anything...and if anyone does...they're a moron.

In plain terms...rename this thread-Who do you think in your opinion is most likely to win in a 35 versus 1. That is the ultimate player if you ever needed to know.

Technically.. that's wrong..

Your saying that some people have moved over to Planetside therefore they are the "best players". I wouldn't even consider paying a monthly fee. Once you buy a game, thats it, no more fees. It's a cheap way of getting money.

For those of you who've been playing since the MP test should know my name.
I've been retired for quite some time now but every "best sniper" that came along I fought on private servers and won..
I had the best K/D ratio of any player..

I know I'll get flamed for this but I don't care, I don't play this game cause of the choppy netcode anymore and I probably will never come to this forum again but...

I was the best sniper this game had ever seen_._

I have seen most of the people on that list being big time point whores... I should know because at some point I was there myself although I've grown out of that phase...

I have seen some of those "best players" point whore to the point of not stopping an enemy that is passing right next to them because they are too busy pounding a structure... That's when I decided that was not for me, I can't be like that...

I think you go through phases and mature in the game, after a while there are more important things than the MVP's or ranking in a game or WOL... You wanna have fun, you want a degree of sportsmanship and honor and you really don't wanna be bothered with assholes than don't posses these qualities...

To answer or not answer your question...

It is not important who people think is the best... I may not be the best but it still feels damn good to sneak in undetected and sap that building
