Lol, how many times has someone called you a hacker? Or said you where using a Trainer/Aimbot... I have... Thousands of times, and its always funny, cause' they talk... so n00bish... Its like... O_O_OO_

Anyway, I was in a server today, I think it was the Dom guild one, or one of FUD's. I was a PIC and was killing people in the tunnels in under... This one guy keeps whispering to me, "WTF I WAS A SSTEAL GUY (Thats not a typo, thats what he said)!1"... I started laughing so hard, I left the server and got the idea to see how many times this happens to you

That happened to me when I killed an SBH that was standing right in front of me (not moving just watching) in the tunnels on Field. Today as well when our team rushed the Ref on Mesa, someone accused the whole team of using a wallhack...

It is funny, in Counter-Strike I was doing average (just slightly over a positive kill:death) and I was called a hacker. And then after the second time I shouted him down and he said he was just pissed off I keep rushing the CT path and killing him quickly adn he didn't really think that. Lol. People say the darndest things.

Heh.
Today me and my clanmate had a 2v1 sniping only clan match against this..guy. He hosted and said "tunnel wars only". So, we did. He was absouloutly slautering us. My clanmate had to go, so he left before the game ended. Then I offered another map, that I would host. I picked volcano, and I won the game 12-2 (kills). I guess, I had an aimbot :rolleyes: .

only had it happen once but it was still funny all the same. i was on a server i usually don't play on and i had an ion sydney. i saw a sbh and i chased him down and killed him after about 4 shots. he then typed in "msn you fucking aimbot hacker!" i typed in "your not always completely stealth" and someone else on the server said the same. then later on the same guy was out in the feild with a sbh and i killed him again and he typed in "there's something strange about msn" he then left shortly after that.
