I've set up shop temporarily on QuakeNet if you want to still mingle while we wait.

irc.quakenet.org or US people can get a faster connection at us.quakenet.org

Channel is, of course, #n00bstories

irc://us.quakenet.org/n00bstories

Hopefully we won't be there long.

You can find me on StarChat, reached via irc.starchat.net.

I'll be in the #starchat room helping users out while the server is down.

Don't idle in there, though. Network policy dictates that you come for assistance, then leave as soon as you're satisfied with said assistance... Helps keep confusion down.

But this box has a perk you wouldn't expect, and one I'm not sure if I'm supposed to talk about.
/msg me in IRC for details.
