Everyone is racist in some form or another.

Why are you so intent against racism? That's like saying we shouldn't look at anyone. The human mind instantly categorizes everything it sees, because it recognizes patterns and remembers them. You see a group of oriental people and you'll remember a group of oriental people the next time you see a single oriental person. It's the way the mind works... It's a defense reaction in a sense. If you feel threatened e.g. by a group of black\white\whatever men walking down the street with lead clubs in their hands, you'll remember that group later when you see another of their kind.

To deny being racist is to deny being human. To deny being human is a lie.

Go ahead and live in denial... I'm a racist and I'm proud of it. I don't like Mexicans... boo fucking hoo. What're you going to do about it? I have the right to my opinions as much as you have the right to not like them... Take an injection of "Get The Fuck Over It" like you preach tolerance and let it go.

No one, not a single person said anything after this message, I dont understand, or people so scared of him that thye cant even hold their ideals...? I'll probably get flames for this so go ahead...

The topic got moved to the Politics section. Look it up there and reply there. There is more to these opinions.

Why should you be confused? Everyone has an opinion and the right to state it. As much as I disagree with the statement, ACK just stated his opinion on the subject which is within his rights.

Incase you didn't read the whole topic, he did get conflicting opinions on his theory. The topic is in the War Forum, and Icesword is banned. There is a difference between obvious racist slander and someone's opinion.

Was there a point to post this thread in both the General forum and the American Politics/War forum?

I don`t see one.....

you only really need to put it on the general forum,
everyone looks there

I wasn't saying that he was making some extreme racist remark, it's just that what he was explaining sounded more like stereotyping (probably not how you spell it) instead of racism. I had no idea that the thread was continued. The thread that I looked at ended after his comment. And because that tech guy replied doesn't mean he cares what you say

I didn't mean to post a message in that other board, I clicked on that link in the corner and it sent me there, I just registered a name for this forum so I'm not exactly an old pro yet lol. Sorry about the double posting.

no point in arguing with him he won't let it die until he wins the argument

ACK has moved to the back of the crowd now..his voice ..just a little mermer...but he does make great maps but he does have a point in that post...
