OK, first off, this being my first post, Hi everybody!

On to the question.

I'm on my second run-through the campaign, I'm at the part where you're supposed to get into the flying saucer somehow. Where is the Red Key? I've killed every Noddie on the base except the ones inside the saucer and I can't find it!

I'm almost certain a Nod Officer inside their Construction Yard holds the Red Key. If you have indeed killed everyone and still do not have it, then I'm not sure what to tell you. All I can suggest is go back inside the CY and look around.

If the saucer you speak of is the crashed alien spacecraft, it's not in there. I forgot where exactly it was, but it's around somewhere.

Ya gotta move fast. Don't get behind her, get in front of her. I did it and beat it on Commando level. Took me a while, but it is doable.
