Well, I'm under the impression that someone Westwood hates me... or I just have terrible luck.. ANYway,

Whenever I try to do anything in Multiplayer internet in Renegade, such as access server list, access buddy list, I get the following:

Unable to connect to server.

Unable to connect to Westwood Online.

Also, whenever I try and find out my password for my account, or sign up for a new account, I'm not getting any email, and I can't figure out what's wrong.

Notes: I'm not behind a firewall when trying this, and I'm not on a router. I've trying reinstalling, I still can't figure out what's going on.

Lol, i take it your new?.

to answer one of your questions.

Wesywood is dead, so you wont be getting any emails for your account registration, you can use it without activating it from the email./

Just got to log in and put in the account name and password and you'll log in as normal.

I cant answer any of your other questions though.

Hope it helps
