Yeah, it's probably Javafx on a different login making a n00bstory about himself as a joke, but it would still be funny if recited.

I have not been home all day. Therefore, and because it is not registered to my IP address, it cannot be me. I have been lounging around at a friend's house watching terrible B movies, eating SmartFood, and making hainous cracks are various people on the streets.

Although I'd like to know who did it, I'm sure I have a picture or two laying around with his name saying "JAVAXXXXX HAXXX".

I'm 12 but I'm not that stupid. About a year ago I was a n00b, but I learned the way of the internet and became a reg. (is there a name for the oppisite of a n00b?) I still have a little "nuberium" in me but it will go away soon. I think that was written by a reg (don't know oppisite of n00b so I use reg) that wanted attention. Spelling "and" "adn" three times kinda gives it away because even someone that types that shitty wouldn't spell it that way three times. I think he doesn't have a backspace or delete key to fix his god fosaken errors.

Back onto subject, I think that's too long at wouldn't be very funny. Best kept down to a paragraph and has alot of exclamation marks.

BTW, I don't think that half of those words you can even pronounce.

BTW, this has helped me develop a cure for the nuberium virus.

Oh god you weren't supposed to see that!! Uh.... back in that one topic about that PM I tried to lie to save my ass. I assumed that halo knew that I was a male that's why I said "I'm not gay". Then I started to think that he thought I was a girl. Then he started having fantasies about me and I didn't want to spoil them so I kinda went along. I was only trying to be nice! You never would have found that picture if I wasn't so lazy to rename one of the files or upload that picture to 1asphost.com. But it was already uploaded so I didn't have to do anything, and my internet was going slow as hell because I was having a voice and video conversation on MSN and transferring files so I couldn't do anything on my internet. (though for some reason these boards load fast even when my internet is being this slow) I got that other picture from my 16 year-old friend on AIM.

Anyway, it is all JCOOL91's fault!!! He told me to do this, he helped me, and he makes me do other bad things!

Pokemonboy3 is none other than Taskbot7. The n00bstory was done just as a way of getting noticed, to fulfill his need for attention caused by some sick disorder or the other.
