I have enabled Avatars from a selected Renegade gallery.

Click "Profile" at the top.
Scroll down and click the "Show Gallery" button.
There are 3 galleries to choose from. Select the avatar you want.
Click "Select Avatar". You will go back to your profile screen.
Click "Submit" to finalize selecting your avatar.

DO NOT ASK ME FOR A CUSTOM AVATAR! You will not get it. I will ignore your PM. I don't have the time to do custom approved images. If you have a pack of gaming or CNC-related images that are 80x80 up to 100x100, you may contact me to submit the entire batch to be available to the public.

Thanks, and enjoy.

I have just extracted 383 Icons from past C&C games that might make cool avatars. I have zipped them up, i'll see if Crimson wants to use them for the forums. They are only 64*48 in size but they may work. I have extracted them from Redalert 1, Redalert 2, Redalert 2 Yuri's Revenge, and also Tiberian Sun. Some of them are pretty cool.

I couldn't extract the icons from Counterstrike or Aftermath as i was unable to find the MIX file with them in, there probably located inside the RTPatch file that patches the game though, There would only have been 10 or so though. I couldn't get any from Firestorm as i don't have the game and also i have the DOS version of C&C 1 and the icons look bad, could do with C&C 95 or C&C Gold to extract them.

Whats a script kiddie?

If you seriously aren't sure what script kiddies are, they're some of the most dangerous hackers out there. They are people that aren't technologically sophisticated, and they normally have little understanding as to what it is they are exploiting because the weakness was discovered by someone else. It's also defined as a kid who's acting like a hacker by using stuff other people made with no real skill.

spreegemHow do I create my own avatar??? Do I use paint or some sort of image editor or something like that, What file type should it be saved as???

I designed mine using Adobe Photoshop 7, but seeing as how that specific graphics program is not free, you'll have to download a cheaper alternative, such as Jasc Paint Shop Pro; many will argue that this is the closest you'll get to Photoshop for free. Play around with a few of the tools or download and install filters if you want to come up with some texture such as mine. Then you should save it as either GIF(low file size, reduced quality) or JPG(higher file size, increased quality).

Kind of off topic, but while we are on pictures ...

Why does Brigadier General Locke have three stars?
That is a Lieutenant General's rank. A major general has two and a full General has four L3f7H4nd3dAspenthspreegemHow do I create my own avatar??? Do I use paint or some sort of image editor or something like that, What file type should it be saved as???

I designed mine using Adobe Photoshop 7, but seeing as how that specific graphics program is not free, you'll have to download a cheaper alternative, such as Jasc Paint Shop Pro; many will argue that this is the closest you'll get to Photoshop for free.

I got it free.

same here

I can name a few others too:

Dante
Stonerook
Bumpaneer
SnipeFrag
General Havoc

I don't see why we traitors, I play PS a lot (RenEvo Epoch Outfit) but that doesn't mean we don't care for Renegade any more. As you probably don't visit the Mod forum, Dante and RenEvo people are still working on the Dead 6 expansion and RenHelp 2.0. I, myself am running my tutorials site still and adding new tutorials every so often. None of us (as far as I know) who play PS have given up on Renagde.

Reply Creed and Majin: LOL I say long, but didn't mean longer than you commanders, I respect all commanders as tha shows they're senior in community. To be honest I might not be here at the beta, but I played the game since the day of release, and I was in the now-closed official Renegade forum quite long. So I'm sure that I can say I've been in the community quite a long time, but in the form of observing. Also, I'm the most senior in the community comparing to ALL

Thai players LOL but that's not the point. The problem is I don't posts much, that's my problem as I don't flood lol. And also I feel sorry that I can't do much for the community, because education must come first. Sorry if I said sth inappropriate. Oh, c'mon I'm just a general! I mean I'm just not as senior as you, commanders :rolleyes:

That's defenetily intended to be a chicken. I was making a chicken mod way back, and all the strings had the name "chicken" not duck. Plus, if that's a duck, I would have to go back through all the strings and edit them .

It's a chicken. The beak is pointed. The parts that are characteristic of chickens are the pointed beak and the legs/feet right? The rest of that bird could be either duck, or chicken, both have wings, both have eyes, both have heads, and both have necks. There isn't any part of the bird that is characteristic of a duck.
