Whats up with the forum? It's like I'm using a 2800bps modem when trying to use the forums. Something up with the n00bstories server again? Or is it some 12 year old idiot screwing around again? Anyway, I hope It's working properly soon

Server has been under constant attack...Im lucky to even be able to type this very text. Hopefully they will either give up soon or state their "demands" lol.
