In Renegade the term 'aim-bot' is only used by those who can't admit defeat. There are alot of flaws in this game, but aimbots aren't one of them.

I need a new mouse... the primary button is so worn out that sometimes it gets stuck, causing in game like Renegade to fire at a anywhere I move. Well, it has been a good mouse, served for over 3 years.

An aim bot isnt even technicly posible in the game... maybe as a Mod but then it would affect everyone... not only one persone...
