Today as of 6.30 i was playing on Mizzo12.I Joined the game and it was on volcano.Nod had killed all gdi building except power plant.Nod had nothing but a Hand.I go into tunnels with a shooter to get some kills.I had about 8 other people with me.Suddenly a shotgun trooper named "neoxxx" rushes in and proceeds to kill all us with headshot.I was in the back of the pack and i noticed with he didnt one shot.When I died his health was in yellow.Iv played this game for about long as it has been out and i have never seen anyone that good.I respawned and went into the power plant tunnel.About 6 of us were there and he had a shooter.Again,He mowed us all down.I dont know any way in hell that 1 shooter can take out 6 of us and escape with yellow health again.Now im a really good player and pretty good with a shooter and I could barly hit him.I hit tab and he had,117 kills and 17 death.How the hell can someone do that.My friend in my clan is an admin on that server and he Looked at his ip.There were other people on the server also with an aimbot.We kicked the one with 117 kills and later he rejoined under a different name.He still was the name way.About 6 people on the server had it,They had things with like 32/6.I want to warn all admins about this problem.

I dont know how were going to solve this problem but it needs a fixing.Now this isnt some stuped post by a n00b,Iv won the cup 3 times for clan and ranked 25 as of now.

at close range a shotgunner will own you 1 shot can kill chest and above... just because sumone has 36/3 doesnt mean they got an aimbot aswell

omg i got an aimbot

but 117 kills...is strange he could have had major lagnever seen anyone get over 50 kills on a server before...unless it was running for like 1 hour a round

+ on your picture i cannot read the Nod players properly..but erm..there is no neoxxx becасue i cant see a 3 digit kill...

Dude,Iv been playing a long time,This isnt a joke.My admin friend said he actually had 119 befor he kicked.You know the kind of kills you get when you lay down a c4 in a populated building?Thats what was happining with him and a shooter,You dont understand,This guy would charge alone from his base all the way to there my base and kill everyone in the tunnel with one shooter. You tell me how you can win a 15v1 shooter fight in a narrow spot? Without using c4.

me for speaking out for my team.

map was canyon and I was GDI, we were winning by about 2000-4000 points, we had just taken out their air strip and they just nuked out bar, right when bar was taken out another nuke was layed at ref, a handfull of engies and techs rushed to ref including me, it was placed on the roof right across from silo, I tried to disarm it but it was just out of the effective range of a repair gun and barely damaged it, and of course ref died, I said "that was a cheap ass tactic", and this one player said "that's what GDI gets for point whoring the airstrip lol", i said 'there is a difference between whoring and exploiting dumbass" *kick*

I think I'll stay with the pitts.....

BTW the guy who said "that's what GDI gets for point whoring the airstrip lol" I think his name was Tycoon Lol...

You have no proof what so ever that he or anyone else was using an aimbot. The only thing that you've proven is that you run through areas blindly without any care to get to the other's base, making you an easy target to someone waiting with a shotgunner on the other side. You say he killed everyone with a headshot? How exactly do you know they were headshots? It doesn't say that, only "you were killed by ..." or "... was killed by ...".

Quote:at close range a shotgunner will own you 1 shot can kill chest and above... just because sumone has 36/3 doesnt mean they got an aimbot aswell

The only reason you're claiming he's using an aimbot is because you got your asses kicked. "There's no one that can be that good, no one's better than me, he must be cheating, that's it! He's cheating!" LOL...

There's one on there (#36) that says he has 20 deaths and only 4 wins, OH NO! he must be using a deathbot or something! :rolleyes:

I will not say if an aimbot exists or not, but your stoy is flawed.

1. I have seen many people with 100+ kill games since Renegade came out. I believe Java was one.

2. You are basically saying that if a person has a K/D 36/6 or better they may have an aimbot. Well, then that means r3ctum, TrueADM, fr0chin and about 100 others have an aimbot. Those players averaged 45 kills on my sniper server. In a 30 minute time frame (more than 1 kill a minute)

Look at the size of the server you were playing on. It was a large game. On large servers I would only average 10 deaths. I die more on the smaller games because there are fewer targets. So unless you have a way to prove these people have aimbots, don't complian everytime you get your ass handed to you on a platter. :rolleyes:

any decent sniper would be able to get 90-100 kills in a game if trying, this does notmean that they have aimbots,my personal best is 195 kills in an hour not including the game i got scorinbg 9765 kills but that was continuously shooting a invincible havoc bot which would not die

K9Trooper1. I have seen many people with 100+ kill games since Renegade came out. I believe Java was one.

In a 20 man, non-sniper server. Thanks for the recognition, but I have to confess that it was a mechanical aimbot which I used. It consisted of infrared sensors, small rollers, and a plastic ball. These were tied with various silicon apparatuses which connected a pressure activated piece of plastic to my computer.

Fancy.

ref boost is an exploit, Nod stealth black hands have a lot of time to get on top of the ref roof, where as GDI has to locate the beacon and has 30secs or less to on roof in a 46 person server with lag/ also 9/10 of the time it cannot be effectively disarmed because it is out of range or effective range of the repair gun.....

and if it not an exploit then why do you think WW put barriers all around ref where you can't walk on it eh? answer that it is and exploit they did not intend for you to walk all over the ref, they just didn't put a invisible barrier right above the ref entrance.....

I know that dude,Im saying How can someone run into the Ref tunnel on volcano and take on 6 or 7 shooiters and kill them all and escape with like yello health?And,The only way you can kill a shooter with a shotgun guy with with a shot to the head,And considering there were about 8 shooters in the tunnel he didnt have time to reload,So every shot was to the head considering we got mowed down with a shotgun in about 6 seconds.Its simple math.

Crimson, You of all people should know then since you go to clan wars.cc

The admin of mizzo kicked the player with 119 kills, everyone on the server was also saying he was using one. You could even see by the kills. The Chat box would be empty then suddenly full with kills from one person.

BTW Westwood exposed already hosts an aimbot on their site. It's the color aimbot from counterstrike. <http://search.yahoo.com/bin/search?p=renegade+aimbot&ei=UTF-8> 60 minutes. It's the only way to play a propper match. Games lasting for 30 minutes are normally over too fast if your in an all out war. I've seen lots of last minute rushes on fiels in the 55th minute normally resulting in a win if it is done properly. Saying that who like playing volcano for an hour with only a Nod and GDI pp left.

BTW the pics aren't mine but they were taken on my clans server (32 players or 30). The fact that it's gamespy is N/A and has nothing to do with the conditions.

Also if you ever play against bozim u will notice he only headshots. With snipers,pistols or any infantry. He misses but what does hit you is a headshot which is wrong.

Aim-bots would be useless in Renegade, as the architecture in which Renegade operates is far too complex for any bot to compete effectively against anyone human with it's AI. AI can't calculate the formula when the game script operates, Client - Lag - Host - Lag - Client X - Lag - Host - Lag - Client (X = Clients, Loop). The only exceptions are if the host used an aim-bot, which doesn't happen for obvious reasons.

So if an aim-bot were to exist, currently none do; they would be totally useless. In the case of sniping, where an aim-bot would be useful, it would also be useless due to the fact sniping is about timing; not aim.

This picture is 2 years old, and yet it proves nothing.

One thing is for sure, you can get 100+ kills in a 30 min game...

I can easily get 44 kills in 10 min with an APC, you have to look at all the angles... sometimes it's not just sniping.

And sloppy is right, that guy was cheating, im not so sure it was aimbot though.

For instance, my friend used to play renegade on dial-up connection, and i dont know if any of you have ever played with dial-up or not, but its pretty easy to get 100+ kills.

I played a game on his comp and got 159 kills, easy. The people on the game will run into walls, stand still, and when you shoot them, no matter where they are, they die. Some of you know this as "LAG KILL N00B."

So what im saying is, maybe this guy was laggin off the hook or something, trust me, its pretty easy to get kills that way.

And Bozim...

- 1) Laggy as hell
- 2) Aimbot
- 3) Lucky as shit

Pick one
