Tighten the center circle and that might be slightly effective.....

.....not counting the times you'd run into things and get run over.....

anyhow: Omig0sh y0u 1337 h4xx0r!!!!!!11!1

What's funny is that you still havent figured out the cliffs you can jump off to exploit renegade's unique brand of charm in netcoding.

I love doing that, and being accused of being a "l33t haxx0r"

You can survive cliff jumping quite nicely in certain areas. And I ain't telling.

It's just how the physics engine works. On the internet even if there is little lag you still walk down the cliffs. Mainly you can do it on walls to get down faster.
