That's right, a new version with more questions and better interface & graphics all done by me. Tell me what you think? BTW, it now uses RAR compression, so that's now only 5.6Mb. Enjoy!

Update: I found a major bug that left out some of the questions, etc. Please could everyone re-download as the score will differ.

Sorry

Thanks,

Edit: Why couldn't RenEvo take the forums. Then it wouldn't be slow because of the reputation n00bstories has.

This is based on how ADM plays, not how good he is. All snipers & players have their own tatics and strategys..

So really no-one can really get a decent mark on this "program" unless you play like ADM.

I already knew that. Me and ADM were in the same clan and we played by the same strategies.

This program does go off me, true. Although most snipers snipe in similar ways to me. I think I made the second version too easy, it's alot less opinionated than the first.

It's a comparison test, and it's also a bit of fun.

Obviously you lost the fun part since I last spoke to you Snipesimo.
