I know there are some great places to get Renegade Mapping tutorials, but it's good to have more than one place in case one site is down etc...

So I'm here to let you all know that I have added a new "Tutorial download" site at <http://nodforum.proboards19.com/>

Now with that said, I would like to ask all of you that have tutorials out there, to either send me a copy for posting on my site, or sending me your approval for me to download it from an existing site, and adding it to my site as well. In other words, I need your permissions to do it and would feel better to have it in writing. Thanks to all of you that reply. "Positively"

You're not good at sarcasm. You butcher the sense of it... Ugh. You also notice how you contradict yourself?

Zuh? This was supposed to be an insult, I can see the intentions behind it, but it became stringy towards the end and you fell apart...

Quote:And now, to the normal people of this forum, it only makes since to me to have more stores of mine.

Ahh, more self-glorification. This all comes from a man who believed that he was given Glacier Flying from Westwood to work on just because it appeared when made inside LevelEdit. Using that logic, I suppose you're king among men... After all, with all of your Renegade work, you've earned it! You even know how the engine works, and you even figured out that Westwood gave it to you, even though they have ceased to exist!

Laeubi is correct. It is always on now, the times it was down was the old host the site was on. Laeubi has been a great help paying for new hosting and letting me have use some of it for renhelp. You would have not noticed the transition between the two hosts as the DNS never changed.

I have nothing much to say about the topic. Another tutorials site is useful as long as the content differs from the others. Nobody wants to visit a clone of these forums so why would they want to visit a clone of a tutorial site. The key to making a good site is having new and different content to all the others. It's a good idea as long as it has something different to offer than all the others. For example Although me and Laeubi share the same database he offers German support and tutorials.

It's "plain" stupid.

CaptkurtAnd now, to the normal people of this forum, it only makes since to me to have more stores to shop at.

It's "sense", but I'm sure you did this on purpose.

CaptkurtWrong, I've had times where I could not get to your site. either because of your backing up your site, or what ever, but your wrong here saying you're always on. false.

Fragmented sentences and incoherent jibberish is not what makes up, quote, "good English".

CaptkurtAs he sticks one finger up his nose and scratches his ass with the other, he turns, and

This has nothing to do with bad spelling or good English, but I have to ask... How old are you?
Like what? 10?

CaptkurtAll this from someone that can't even spell, much less speak good English, Wow.

Yes, even this quote is incorrect. The correct way to say this sentence would have been, "All this from someone whom can't even spell, much less speak good English. Wow. "

CaptkurtI guess you would have us believe you're just to important and busy of a guy right? Give me a break , dude, you're a dumb ass.

You're making this too easy! This obviously would be "too".

you'd see who started this or turned this into a flame war, and let me say this too, as your new here, you'll learn in the future all about Ack.

Look! A run-on sentence! This just isn't practice of good English!

Killer_BeeYou still hav'ent Proved you'rself...

Not to mention, what the hell are those apostrophes doing there? This type of thing must run in the family?

All of this is just taken from this thread alone. Imagine if I were bored enough at 12:40am to do every post of yours! Crimson would ban me just by the amount of space I'd take up, I'm sure. Of course, reading through this thread alone I know what you are going to reply with:

CaptkurtYou're a dumb ass. If you read through this post you would obviously see that I practice good English and spell very well! Of course, if there are some mistakes then it's obviously ACK's fault because he twists everything around and turns posts into flame wars. Be sure to check the website in my signature and find out why I know ACK is a narcissist.

That's great Captkurt. Don't honestly care though, so don't even bother replying.
