Maybe if you had played more then 1/4 of the maps out there you'd find more then 6 or 7 maps worth playing.

None of them would be yours, of course.

I don't class a level with "Tiberios" in it as being worthy of play just because of the existence of said "Tiberios."

People who laugh at that must really have some low standards for humor...

Quite a stir has been caused by the mention of tiberios. lol

I spoke to JRP, he includes the tiberios model somewhere in all his maps (not sure of his total) saying Tiberios were sort of his signature on his maps.

If you want to use his Tiberios idea (in a factory map what ever) i would advise you ask before you proceed (out of kindness).

The tiberios box textures are not to be released to the public - Tiberios boxes have been in every map of mine and have become a sort of signature. The actual model is just a box.

However, if you want to help advertize tiberios, I've created a poster for Tiberios that can be freely distributed. Below a jpg image of the poster and a link to the dds and tga files.
