In the Leveleditor are the entrys:

GlobalSettings-->PurchaseSettings-->Equipment (GDI)

GlobalSettings-->PurchaseSettings-->Equipment (NOD)

There you can add MediKits and so on. But how can i activate that for the Game???

Here's my way of doing it: Make a new vehicle, like an SSM or something. Set it's health to 1 and it's armor to 0. Now, attach the script GTH_Drop_Object_On_Death (or use the M00 one), and set the object to the weapon powerup. Now in the vehicle extras menu, add (or replace an existing vehicle) your vehicle with the price for the weapon. Now you buy them from the WF and blow it up with your pistol.

Want to do it even better?

In combo with the helipad script, you can set it up so that a helicopter drops a crate (which kills itself, or you blow up!) with powerups! Your vehicle will just need to be a crate instead! General Havoc has the tutorial.

He means how can you buy a weapon, just like you buy the Nuke or Ion beacons at the PT. It automatically goes into your inventory.

I cant help you, as I do not havew any knowledge of it.

You can edit the character/vehicle/extra menus to include these items, just select a powerup as opposed to a character, I believe. I'll check for you.

I thought it did too, but actually I just checked and it doesn't. You get a factory not available message.
