It's going to look quite funny if it still shoots out the blue beam.

it feels like it could use some work. i mean its funny but a logo on it and fix the texture on the side, you use one texture. but its still cool

Make the FlameThrower A Spray Can with a match in front of it Make the rail gun a Nail gun! lol

Ummm. Instead of funny models why not make realistic ones. Like an m16 for the auto rifle. All the other m16 models suck. Or just make up your own futuristic gun thingies
