I was wondering if there are any good Renegade FAQs out there. I'm looking for a good list of weapon damages, unit health, etc... Anything?

thanks, God Bless

I'm working on a guide at <http://www.fudonline.com>, go to the characters section. So far it has general usage tips, ammo/health listings, and damage info for almost all characters. Once I get done with that I am going to put up map specific strats as well.

Didn't Blazer make something like this a while ago? It was a text file with all the info on all the buildings and characters. I remember reading it but don't remember where I got it.

Yeah, he just made a raw text file with data on damage, range, etc. I took reload times from his sheet, and the rest of my info is either personal or clan testing we did.
