You already have talked shit about 9-11 by saying Iraq doesn't support terrorism. You have not answered my question about Iraq giving money to family members that had suicide bombers. Iraq is involved in 9-11 by supporting terrorists. "All nations that support terrorists will be held accountable".

The number of serial killers that were military trained is minimal. Look at the broader picture. Check out all of them before you make your claims. Jeffery Dahmer, John Wayne Gasse, Ted Bundy, Charles Manson the list goes on. I can only think of 4 military trained serial killers.

Just so you know, Islam is not a religion that is against the United States. However, when it is hijacked by fundamentalists they can interpret it to support their views of jihad.

In fact Islam is a peaceful religion that shares many values with christian and jewish faiths

Saying that all muslims is against us is like saying that all christians are against homosexuality, abortion, or whatever(insert christian fundamentalist hatred here).

This does not seem to be the case. Islam seems to encourage terrorism of the infedels in the Kohran(sp?) to make them fear Allah. So according to the Korhan(sp?) good Mulims cause terror to the infidels and bad Muslims are the peacefull ones. I listened to someone quote the Korhan (sp?) at great length on the subject. That person had visited 150countries & talked to Muslims including extremist around the world before he wrote his book and went on the air. Something to think about.

I am a christian. I am also aware of the teachings of Islam. Islam in it's pure form is a peaceful religion. We CAN NOT turn this war in to a religious war.

Mr. Da_Shiz don't try and turn the post in to a religious war post. I feel that it would get locked then.

In almost everyone of my post I lay down hard CONCRETE points and facts and you are still slinging mud. When I post I pepper the facts & points with mud slinging...you dont seem to be as interested in facts or solid premises. Come on, say something stupid.

I have several very long post full of points and facts that you have yet to address. These are post from LAST NIGHT. I've brought it to your attention and all you say is "I've already answered that"...but you haven't. Your putting up a very poor showing for 'your side' of the show.

Keep up the good work, I'm going to gather up all of your post and make a thread on you to clearly show your mental super-powers.

I've been presenting plenty of facts. You have yet to address these post :
<http://www.n00bstories.com/renforums/viewtopic.php?p=7683#7683>

Let me do this again

Why not Iraq ? Others have been attacked for less.

Who do you think is the cause of this situation ? Bush or Saddam ? Please state why.

Who is suppose to enforce UN resolutions ? UN doesn't seem interested. More inspections are hardly 'serious consequences' as laid down by UN resolution.

How much time is enough ? 12yrs not long enough ? How about 24yrs ? Perhaps 36yrs ? Can Saddam pass this down to his sons ?

When that time runs out HOW do enforce your will ? Magic Diplomatic Bunny going to come make everything ok w/no bullets or bombs ?

you've made plenty of statements like : "Saddam hasn't done anything" or "That type of thing is illegal" (school stuff). It's really been like shooting fish in a bucket. You have no to little idea of the topics you speak on and then go off claiming THAT about US who are the obvious 'informed' party in the situation.

Allow me to quote myself :[sgtheOne]

"Only specific conversation / questions / proposition of premises and facts will allow us to make quantified progress in this forum. Ill conceived logic, poor communication skill, propoganda, opinions, hersay & other gray areas wont take us very far."

ps. Notice 'our' (pro-war) post are long and drawn out, we state facts and make points. BUT your post are well...very much lacking ANY content much less facts, premises etc.

Thats what I hate about talking to people like you. I devote time, energy and thought into my post and you come back with two sentences of total bullshit. You are literally a waste of my time, a leach of my intellect.

The UN slit it's own wrist, get it right.

The UN has had the iron grip of control on the situation and look what it got us, the same inspections 12yrs later. Bravo on the fucking progress. Twelve years later he still has the most of the same weapons he declared after the 1st war & continues to develop new weapons and means to deploy them. You can answer the same questions I posed to others...How much time is enough ? And when someone days say THIS IS ENOUGH, THE TIME IS NOW how do you force your will ? With bunny rabbits & flowers ? You're absolutely right, the UN doesn't rule anyone, it's supposed to be democratic. And last I checked, America was all for democracy. But I guess by democracy it means you're free to do what you like, as long as it's what America wants you to.

The aim of the war is necessary. The waging of the war probably isn't necessary at this time, but if it achieves its aim with little loss of innocent life, then it's acceptable. But saying you "can't wait for the smackdown on iraq" or "smell iraq cooking" is disgusting and offensive. There is never anything 'good' about a war, and no reasonable person would be happy to see one.

What is wrong with his regime?

Since when is it the western worlds right to decided which governments have the right to exist? From my understanding, although they are not happy with there government, they don't have a problem with it.

It has not been proven that there are weapons of mass destruction in Iraq.

So, I say again, what is the mission objective? Other then American Imperaism?

Do you not think the Iraqi people tremble with fear at the thought of American Troops invading there country? I am sure the feel terified, so, I ask, who are the terrist now?

What's wrong with his regime?! Are you high? Everyone knows he is a brutal tyrant. That's not even in dispute. People ask what gives us the right to overthrow him. I'd like them to answer what gives us the right to sit back and watch him kill thousands of people. If you saw your neighbor beating a person to death, would you just stand there and let it happen? Basic humanity gives us the right to stop a mass murderer like Saddam.

The Iraqi people are more afraid of Saddam then American troops. They live in fear everyday. People in Iraq are often scared to speak in public because they think Saddam's secret police may be listening.

Generally speaking, there are alternatives to war. In this case, all other options have failed. Its now time to stop Saddam with force.

I have seen no evidence that Saddam is a mass murderer, I need proof. In fact I would prefer that you back up all your statements.

War is never an alternative!

Yes! But Canada is not going to invade the US over it, as war is simply never an alternative.

Saddam does need to be removed, but not at the expense of Iraqi lives.)

Cpo64

What is wrong with his regime?

Since when is it the western worlds right to decided which governments have the right to exist? From my understanding, although they are not happy with there government, they don't have a problem with it.

It has not been proven that there are weapons of mass destruction in Iraq.

So, I say again, what is the mission objective? Other than American Imperaism?

Do you not think the Iraqi people tremble with fear at the thought of American Troops invading there country? I am sure the feel terified, so, I ask, who are the terrorist now?

Do you not think the Iraqi people tremble with fear at the thought of American Troops invading their country? I am sure the feel terrified, so, I ask, who are the terrorists now?

I do not support terrorism or the Iraqi government, but I support war even less, there are other alternatives.

Seems we are getting into that gray area I spoke of.

Cpo64 : "What is wrong with his regime?"

This regime is in material breach of UN resolutions. This regime is 'friendly' to al-Quada(sp?) terrorist, allows them to reside in their country and train within their borders. This regime takes food goods shipped to them for the purpose of helping their civilain population and sells it on the black market. This was proved cause the UN etc was able to BUY BACK good thats IRAQ was suppose to be giving to its people. This regime has also hijacked other goods shipped to them in good faith of proper use and transformed them for military capabilities. This regime in its last elections cough cough returned a 99%/100% vote for Saddam and this was calculated in around 24hours (2000 population = 22,675,617 @ 2.86% growth rate (estimated 2000)).

Cpo64 : "It has not been proven that there are weapons of mass destruction in Iraq."

Oh really.....

After the Desert Storm conflict Saddam had to make a declaration of his weapons. During this time he declared certain types of WMD/Chem/Bio. Previous to our conflict w/Iraq Saddam had used chem/bio weapons so we know he had those. Since then Saddam has not accounted for these weapons, he can not provide them or provide details of their descruction. In more recent history we have discovered munitions designed to be fitted with chem/bio weapons. On top of that we have discovered other devices 'drones' that can be fitted to spread chem/bio weapons. I believe this pretty well addresses that point. All of this points to -- hey Saddam you have WMD/Chem/Bio and we know it. Saddam is in material breach, this is a fact.

Cpo64 : "So, I say again, what is the mission objective? Other then American Imperaism?"

Mission Objective : Bring the Iraq govt into compliance w/UN resolution.

Note : If the current government wont come into compliance after oh say 12years and 1000 chances then we may have to pull a 'regime change hat trick'.

This isn't US imperialism its called a)bringing Iraq into UN compliance b)enforcing UN's own resolutions c)giving the Iraqi people their country back so maybe they can have a meal or not be randomly raper/murdered by the government.

Cpo64 : "I do not support terrorism or the Iraqi government, but I support war even less, there are other alternatives."

Well the Iraqi gov. supports terrorist so what do ya think of that ?

This is about the 1 BILLIONITH time I've seem someone refer to these MYSTIC ALTERNATIVES. CAN SOMEONE PLEASE NAME ONE ? (ps. perferably one we haven't tried already)

Thanks a million,
The One

Speaking of proof... I would like some on that.

Other alternatives? How about not going to war?

It is the opinion of the Canadian Government, and my self, that the UN resolutions were working, so do we even need an alternative?

Cpo64High? No, that would simply be unacceptable.

Your 'neighbor' is attempting to stop the man who is butally murdering people. I'd hoped you try to twist my analogy like that. Thank you for proving you don't recognize the difference between murder and defending a helpless human being. It helps me understand how you can think Saddam isn't a mass murderer. I don't know what facts you'd accept if you can't even see the difference in this basic fact of life.

Try this and this for starters. It's almost 2 AM and I'm too tired to find much else right now.

It is the opinion of the Canadian that the UN resolutions were working, so do we even need an alternative?

You seem a bit confused...inaction does not count as action. The UN resolutions say specific things.

Do : A, B & C

Do NOT do : X, Y or Z

So far Saddam has not done A, B or C which is why INSPECTIONS ARE STILL GOING ON. It IS NOT THE JOB OF THE UN TO DISARM SADDAM...IT IS SADDAMS JOB

Oh ya Saddam HAS BEEN DOING X, Y AND Z.

This puts him in material breach. Material breach = 'serious consequences'

'Serious consequences' != Hanz & The Goof Troops / (more inspections)

BTW thanks for the fucking joke of an article...

said. "The process was on its way to realization. The Americans decided it wasn't going fast enough." "

If the current regime wont comply what do you propose we do ?

Wasn't going fast enough ? HOW MANY YEARS DOES IT TAKE TO ACT RESPONSIBLE ?

HOW MANY YEARS DOES IT TAKE TO SUCCUMB TO WILL OF THE INTERNATIONAL

COMMUNITY ? Is this like a century long thing ? Can he pass this magic 'please dont come bust my ass' card to his sons who will undoubtedly act in the same manner.

Canada = United in containment(which doesn't work) OR United in pacification(which doesn't work).

The USA will not set on our duffs post 9-11-01 and let Saddam develop/have WPM/Chem/Bio while the rest of the world digs in their pockets trying to locate their 'sack'.

If Saddam was a valid player in the international community there could be alternatives...because he isn't there aren't.

It's hard to deal with many problems at once. If you want, make a list and we'll see what we can do.

When you take text out of context this type of thing happens. When you take text out of context this type of thing happens. Perhaps if I repeat that 10 times when you quote me we can get it right. You'll notice I responded with a very long post addressing your issues. You have yet to do the same.

I do not have any hard facts, nor do I intend to pretend that I do. I am not here to enforce my views on others, or to even try to change your minds. I entered this discussion with the intent of increasing my knowledge of the situation, to increase my understanding of the war. I came here to make a more stable and informed point of view. I have considered the facts that you have produced, and I have evaluated them and taken them into consideration. And by this, I still come to the conclusion that war is not necessary. Short of an attack on my homeland, I do not know what would bring me to believe that war is necessary. Killing is wrong, no matter the reason. Anything I could say to try to convince you of this fact will simply be countered with some link or several paragraphs of meaningless text, which will not improve anything. As for your comments that I believe were made to enrage me, I will simply take note of, and move on.

While I do not personally like the fact that we are at War, there is nothing that I can do about it. It has happened, we are there.

Here are a few facts that I'm pretty sure everyone already knows, as they have been well televised and talked about. However I was searching for something to support another debate and thought they do prove relevant to the debates found in this forum.

<http://www.cnn.com/2003/WORLD/meast/03/17/sprj.irq.main/index.html> ~ Bush gave Saddam Hussein 48 hours for him and his sons to leave Iraq, or the US would begin military action.

<http://www.cnn.com/2003/US/03/17/terror.alert/index.html> ~ As a nation, our national terror alert level was raised from "Yellow" to "Orange"

<http://www.cnn.com/2003/WORLD/meast/03/20/irq.war.saddam.transcript/index.html> ~ Saddam Hussein, in response to the military actions taken against Iraq before the 48 hour time period was complete, declares war on the US today (Thursday, March 20, 2003).

I have already stated personal opinions I have about this war in another thread, I won't bother to post them again. The time has now come for me to (though reluctantly) support President Bush's decision, and hope that this war does not last very long, sparing as many innocent lives as possible.

I do believe that the following article is relevant to those who wish to continue with these threads. If you don't want to read it, it simply says that throughout history, there have always been debates about going to war, and it also discusses how the public opinion should be of no less consequence than the President's final decision to go to war. It is entitled "What Ever Happened to Protest? Speak Up: A democratic nation has a sacred and historic duty to debate any choice for war"

But it is ALL important that you realize what you're protesting against...come take a trip down memory lane with Saddam in the U.N.
