toall you twats who get out of there tank before its blown up

Don't do it you bloody idiots

so many fucking times i have seen these twats jump out to let it get blown up and save a few points.. but no.. this isnt whats happening anymore.. they get out.. thinking "yea im kewl".. then i come along and steal it.. kill him.. and think "yea whos ya daddy" im pissed at this today i was playing i watched 4 different people on my team jump out and get there tanks stolen.. becuae they wanted to save what a measly 50 points.. but thnx to them GDI ended up with 12 tanks.. we lost.. al becuae you wanted to save points...

Please dont use this tactic.. its cheap and makes you look like a fooking tawt when i kill you with your tank

*scuse the langauge i'm not in a good mood after that game
