Infininti wish i knew why but for some reson thay keep locking the trends about cheats

Common Sense.

I don't know, maybe it's because there's a half dozen people posting "cheat" threads every day?
:rolleyes:

They don't lock them, they just move them into a private forum.

I didn't endorse the cheat. I didn't say anythign about how to do it, or where to get it, because I DON'T KNOW. This is the 1st time I seen anything like it and I want it gone from Renegade. So far Renegade has been cheat free for the most part, but through the last few months many cheats have come up and I don't want this to spread out especially with all these mods coming out (reborn, renalert) which might actually generate more players for Renegade.

That particular thread was actually moved to the Server Owner's forum for us to discuss it... which is what I do with all valid complaints.

Sorry, I registered before but I totally don't remember any information as I haven't been here for months. So I just made a new account to post that information, I haven't read your post before that. I know I kind of made a fool out of myself but w/e thats my problem :oops:

Anyways, I appreciate you guys looking into it, I don't want Renegade to become somethign like HL:Counter-Strike.

To tell ya the truth, the lag cheat is a joke. that 1 week I did use it I realized it does more harm than good. If you don't shoot the enemy ithin 2-3 seconds there is a 95% probability that you die...

Why the phuck pick on me? I have not used it SINCE I was kicked. I don't know what your screenshots are about. What about all those who use the bighead, Damage hack, and clickbots?

And maybe hareman... I don't respond as often as you do because I don't sit next to the computer all day, hitting refresh to see if there is a new post, I have a life which comes BEFORE computer gaming. But you will probably flame me for that as well, because you have no clue what I'm talking about :rolleyes:

NO I as recall you were confronted and admitted to it to me, Boink and another whom I will get involved. You lie and you cheat.

You lie badly at that.

SO STFU

But if you were just testing it out as you claim why were you kicked from the clan then? I think somewhere I have the forum backups to where you were voted out by the leaders of that clan. And no where in those forums does it say that you were testing a hack.

You were testing it out in game every game and in clan matches. That is hwy you were kicked from the clan

Are we talking about the time I was kicked from DOM? If yes, YES it HAPPENED! I ADDMITTED THAT. But that was back in April if I remember correctly. Since the time I was kicked from DOM I DID NOT use the command.

Please get it right this time, I never said I NEVER used it, I only said I have not used it SINCE I was kicked.

Clear enough?!

Omg. I used it in a FEW public games but I NEVER EVER used it in clan games. This is ridiculous. STOP MAKING SH1T UP.
