I haven't been checking EVERY topic lately so forgive me if I missed a topic asking the same question.

For anybody who hasn't checked <http://renmaps.com> lately it is just going straigh to The Pits forum (assumeing as its hosted by The Pits).

Now can anybody give me any info on it's current status and if or when it will be back up.

Thx.

Some people hacked Shane and The-Pitts while he was on his vacation. It won't be fixed until he is back, if he decides to fix it. There were alot of other serious things that will be dealt with first before he fixes the website. I am not even supposed to know this information so I will not give detail. There is your update.

msgtpain's nick's were brute forced a week ago, as his webserver was hacked into and the hacker gained information from a copy of the FDS that was on there. The attacker also left several backdoors, thus msgtpain has had to format the hdd, he has gotten the forums back online, but renmaps will be sometime, as he is currently on holiday in LA.

olddustYou are not correct there.

err.. Ok im good friends with the person who hacked the webserver, and im an admin on the-pits, how am i not wrong?

Ok im wrong on the brute force, the passwords were gotten off the old FDS for krnelpain and all of msgpains passwords were the same, i couldnt be assed to edit the first post.

Or maybe the passwords were conveniently provided to your "good" friend hacker, by a inside "admin" at the Pitts.

Geeee, who could that EVER be?

:rolleyes:

You sir, are a dirtbag.

Yet again
Grow the Fuck up!

Or do you have some Hard evidence?
What makes you think that he has access to the passwords

OMG. IT MUST BE CRIMSON DOING IT BECAUSE SHE HAS ACCESS TO SERVER!!!!!!

:rolleyes:

You sir, are a dickhead

He freely admits being in contact with the one destroying the forums.

Live in denial, but don't be ignorant in public, and not do us the service of providing some kind of "evidence" of your own.

Wow

I have had contact with him also. He was on the n00bstories IRC channel

Must mean Everyone in there is in on it

Yea i do have a link with him, msgtpain knows this, and is happy with the situation, if he wasnt, you think i would still be an admin?! Do you think i would still be allowed on the forums let alone the server.

I cant stop him hacking the server, no more then i can stop you acting like a fucking prick.

Since this has happened, i have his word he wont touch the server or games server again. Im happy with that, whether you are or not, doesnt really bother me.

Now can you please kindly fuck off

Great I ask a serious question and KIRBY098 trys to turn it into a flame thread, anyways either way looks like it was hacked and we should just wait a bit till its back up .

KIRBY098 who the hell are you to accuse England of fowarding some passwords.

Breetomas Sk8rRIMuk, sorry for the hijacking of the thread that seems to have taken place

No problem Breetomas I should of realised it may have turned into a flame thread.

Just looks like we will have to wait and see what happens with <http://renmaps.com>

I should close this thread before somebody takes the flames further :rolleyes:

Shut your piehole kid. And I am curious how the hell you are going to close this thread seeing you have the admin power of an GNAT.

It was not turned into a flame war all on my lonesome, and the other participants are not innocent posters. ENGLAND has a track record as the guy who denied service to this very forum when he hosted it at its inception. He then shut off service with little notice for no other reason than old WSE allegiances.

He is friends with one of the most ignorant, and notorious WSE members who is currently causing hell with one of the most upstanding, and forthright host in the games history.

Anyone who attacks Pain, and anyone who is friends with them, are on my list.

So you don't mind if I ignore your newbie ass for ignorance of things that happened long before you were here.

Said person already had msgtpain's passwords by having access to nickserv on a certain irc server in which msgtpain used the same password.

Exploit admin powers, get pass, get access.

Hardly a brute force.

Oops so I meant to put I think this thread should be closed before the flames go any further.

England has had enough criticism over his past record, don't you think he deserves a break.

How would like all your future decisions to be reflected upon by your past doings?

Oh and before you use my question as an excuse for another flame that was a rhetorical question.
