If you've found the First Officer and killed him, you need to go to the OTHER end of the ship and up, up, up as much as you can to find the Captain.

Hi there again....Thanks for your reply.

I've been up and down that bloody ship...up down. one end to the other and back again but still no captain.....he doesn't even show up on my radar.

Also i have 3 security passes in my possession. green yellow n red and that's all it calls for in my objectives, but no it will not allow me to enter the submarine.....all i keep hearing is that womans voice.... "LOCATE THE CAPTAIN AND OBTAIN A SECURITY PASS FOR THE SUBMARINE."
It done my head in so much last night that i shot all the prisoners and went to bed.

cheers.

the captain is at the top of the ship, with a lotta flamethrowers guarding him if i can remember correctly. If you're really stuck i might redo that mission and get a few screenies.

There have been many instances of triggers not working properly in that level for one reason or another. Re-start the level is all I can suggest. Make sure you don't go through any keycard-doors when they open for an enemy, that tends to screw things up... take your time when in sight of your objectives... thats about all I can offer.

Hi there n thanks for your reply.

You've probably hit the nail on the head with your comment . "don't go through any doors unless.".....I waited for one door to open then forced my way in without a pass.....maybe i'll have to restart this level.....many thanks all the same.

cheers.

Just in case this guy's still racking his brain over it () yea, this is a level script break.

What I think happened was, (because this has happened to me before, but I completed the mission) he went through a yellow-coded door at the bottom of the ship when a black hand soldier opened it, and he didn't have the yellow card at the time. So he made his way along that side of the ship, killed the flamethrowers and captain, got the red card, headed back to the other side and killed the first mate to get the yellow card, and because EVA knows that after you kill the first mate you then proceed to kill the captain, well he'd already done that but EVA wanted him to go kill the captain anyway. So that's how things got uber fuxx0red.
