Yeah? Well, I've got an aimbot. It's great, it automatically targets the screen, and then you just have to choose where on the screen you want it to shoot.

My kills have jumped 500% since I got it. Yesterday, I got five.

The only idiots i see in this topic r the ones who actually hack. Everyone thinks these r cheats, but cheats r things built into the game, not external programs. Hacks r external programs in this case.
