Not to be a pest, but how do you keep the game from crashing? I can buy it once, but if i try to buy it again, the game crashes and sends me back to desktop.

Why do you buy Renegade more than 1 time???

Have you got too much money?

Im sorry guys i didn't explain it enough.
Renegade only 10$ you know

When you Start up renegade, you load the level and you buy the only character avaiable (theres one 1)

If you die as this character you respawn, but if you were to try to buy anything from the purchase terminal, Renegade crashes!

I hope i cleared it up somewhat if you mean you cant access the pt, this is a common bug and the fix is to die.

if renegade crashes to desktop, this could be a server hiccup, once bcserv4 dropped about 20 people.

Make sure you don't have any mods running, or installed anything that modified character files in any way (not skin files, because that only changes what the character looks like, not the file in particular). That could be whats causing the disagreement with the charater purchases.
