Usually when a hack/bot comes out it isnt easy to get so it doesnt ruin the game. I could get any of those hacks in 2 clicks, stupid speed hack damage bot, big head all those are basically public now, not even rare.

Crimson dont go banning me but explain why u r so "anti bot" and ban ppl for mentioning it when u created the raveshaw big head and u told people "now u can pop raveshaws in the head in my snipe server like cherrys"

Go ahead and get them, we'll see how long you last in any reputable server.

Crimson said that? Interesting, lest see the link/logs, or whatever to back this up.

It was just a pathetic attempt to tarnish my reputation. There's one from msgtpain too but he's on vacation and not really touching a computer. How could he release a cheat?

Lame really.

We shouldn't really sink to their level, its a long, long, long, long...long, way down.

Look at Counter strike its got cheats galore but is still alive and kicking. Alls we have to do is be more dilligint in modding the servers and Renegade won't go down like those basement living, c---sucking, wannabe hackers want it too.

Renegade is almost "over" anyway. as we saw from yesterday, the future of renegade depended on wether 1 person left or stayed.

Haha lol. Renegades not over. Yet.

And by the way the cheats are not "rare" any more.

And as for the hacking, dont hack. Its illegal. Plus I bet hardly anyone here could even "hack" anyone. Most people here saying to "hack" people dont even know what they are talking about. Do you mean dealeat their stuff? Screw their HDD's, DDOS them, what? lol. Learn.
