If you jump and then hold the jump key after you do it you'll sort of trot along, which is just fast enough to keep an even pace with the harvester, for example, when sneaking into a base. Slower than a run, but faster than a walk.

to be honest that is flase.. if u have a good vid card u can tell the differ, and even when walking u would be able to tell, especially if u staling behind them and u pass them up lol.

also.. a differ hint. even when walking or running u can be heard. The only way to move around without behing heard is jumping from side 2 side.. try it works.
