So are you open to additons from people?, I am just a Voice in FoDSvr02 and also in-game mod, but I have a list of diffrent people who have used hacks/cheats and pictures of people who just generally break the rules and/or take advantage when BR is down or when thees a vechile lieing around.

I have only got 5 or so people at the omment but I am sure as the chetas become more and more public there will be more cheaters found.

Another one is N00biaint. I was playing with him on SoG's and the pitts servers. He was on my team and i noticed he had an amzingly high score. I followed him around and i saw him shooting at walls and getting kills He was also picking off GDI meds with a ramjet in about 2 shots. I wonder if cheating makes him feel big

I can imagine that list will never end as more and more peeps are getting hacks everyday i think the only way to avoid it is join a server where there is a host/moderator present.. .or just wait for the punkbuster

I played a game today and 1 person got kicked about every 5 minutes for cheating. I figured it was the anti-cheat program since there was an automated message that appeared each time.

That will be the auto-kick when people buy vechiles.

Theres no anti-cheat program YET!

you should add huskytech and iambram to cheaters list. Also are you sure that madness72 is a cheater? I know him, he is in my clan, he never cheated with me.
