guys I found a fucking cheating site where you can download cheats, I want to report it, but if I will write the site here fucking noobs would go there and download cheats. The interesting part is the creators of the cheats are Aircraftkiller and Crimson. I don't know if they used thier nicknames, but that's what it says. Please can someone show me a way to report that site. I hate cheaters!!!

Crimson and ACk don't make cheats, they are just giving them a bad name.
