Maybe all of you laready know but i've been in a game with cheater the past 2 days and the two kinds i have noticed are these: When the host can kill players anywhere anytime, and when their guns auto-aim and have great power (i mean like GDI soldier blowing a harvester in 2 seconds) All I have to say to the cheaters is...come on get a life it cant even be any fun cheating

Wow, the last 2 days? You been living under a rock? This has been going on for weeks. All you can really do is go to a different server to play, like FastConn and any other server that has moderators who kick & ban cheaters with impunity

Yes, it is a sad thing that cheating is now on the rise for Ren. It's hard to beleive why these people want to destroy what we love to play. Other than that they have no life.

Yea we all know about these, due to the fact that people have been announcing where to get the cheats from in servers.

Yeah I saw someone with this. It was a GSA server and Crimson had just played Walls on it but she left when Volcano loaded up and this is when the cheater arrived. He kille tanks in 1 shot and also people.

As far as I know the objects.ddb is used in the cheats and is somehow loaded into the game at some stage. Obviously it wouldn't be possible to load it when you connect to the server or it would cause a version mismatch.
