This tactic is all about timing pick your charector i would go for SBH and enter the tunnels go thru the tunnel closest to the AGT and wait there for the harvester to go back to the GDI Refinary when its done emptying its tiberium quickly run behind the rock closest to the AGT and wait for the harvester to go infront of you... quickly run along the side of the havester and walk with it until you think your safe then dash to the AGT and volla lay a nuke or something :twisted:
