I was just wondering what font he used, on the layout that he made for me, and where I can get it at. <http://www.hostultra.com/~spreegem/index2.htm> that's the new layout for my site.

I'd subject you to use arial for font and make the text size be 10PT.

I'm back

Why should I? It's a FREE layout.

And he likes it anyways...

Welcome Back Aprime! I do like the layout, but I have photoshop, so If I wanted to I could change it. I'm not good at useing photoshop yet though. I should find tutorials. I meant what font did you use when you typed "The gaming world: unleashed" Just the name of it would be fine, because I know a site with alot of free fonts. <http://www.simplythebest.net/fonts/>
