Just thought somone who plays might know?

I got the new version of savage and after i go past the updating screen it brings me to a black screen and in the top left corner it says starting up but nothing happens.

Is there anyway to fix this?

My comp specs are:

AMD Athlon XP 1900+ 160 GHZ

1 GIG of RAM

Radeon 9500

I know a bunch of people that post here also play savage

How come you didnt say anything to ratkiler about how this is a renegade forum on this thread <http://www.n00bstories.com/renforums/viewtopic.php?t=6988>

maybe because hes in WL? :rolleyes:

theres a ton of things that dont relate to renegade that are on this forum...

Savage is still not released so don't ask here but on the beta forums <http://beta.homelan.com/>

O and FYI ACK is not in WL.

thats coz your asking questions that dont belong here, you need to post that in svg forums or the svg beta forums, all i was doing was simply advertising about the game, not asking questions about it.
