I was playing on Onnaserv House o' Love, a 20 person server. much to most everyone's surprise, a 21st person joined. As this shows. What the fuck... Someone also commented that one person had a GDI character but a nod insignia... or something like that. It was odd...

It's actually an exploit that he used to get it. I don't know much about it though.

i seen this happen quite a few times on many servers

i think its a gliche

i was on Katie's server the other day.. and i was playing.. also connected to her IRC room .. and i played and i noticed 33 players (supposed to be 32)

was like O_o

and this guy had been playing for quite a few games.. and i could see him getting kills.. and him tlaking.. and iw as like WTF.. his kills and deaths and score and creds never roses above 0 so i did a /loctae and his name.. and it said he was playing in another server O_o anyway i alt tabed to the IRC channel.. and i noticed that the last thing that this 33rd player said wasnt said by him.. it was another guy O_o and the IRC bot reported 32 players...

fucking confused me!!
