It's not a game. It's just a method of advertising RenGuard.

I personally feel you have misused your account / SN and CD to Illegally advertise a 3rd party Domain. I ask that you stop now or I will be forced to report you to EA.

people like you abuse this AUP because you think your cause is worthy and we should all accept your law.

I Noticed on another post, one of your site fans, warranto has said that only the respectable respected servers, I think this pretty much sums it all up.

I think you should set an example and conform to your own standards, a step towards that would AUP of Renegade.

Not everyone wants to be forced to use this product, and not everyone wants to see the constant that everyone knows about it, OVERKILL IS NOT NEEDED OR WANTED.

no problem speaking to them again about the Blatant disregard you have shown for the AUP.

I'm not using a relay to spam people who join the game chat lobbies.

Yep, tons of people don't know. When you join a server and a fan map comes up, and half the gamers drop, you know that a lot of people don't visit community websites.

Quote:I personally feel you have misused your account / SN and CD to Illegally advertise a 3rd party Domain. I ask that you stop now or I will be forced to report you to EA.

Sorry that's how you feel. Just because you don't know the password doesn't mean it's not a game server. I guarantee you if you knew the password, you could play on the server. Passworded games are set up to limit who can play. I don't want you to play on it, so you don't have the password. The title of the game is also fine because I'm not harrassing, making racial comments, or swearing.

Quote:I Noticed on another post, one of your site fans, warranto has said that only the respectable respected servers, I think this pretty much sums it all up.

You misread. Obviously considering your lack of intelligence in other matters it's not surprising. warranto said that respectable servers will be using RenGuard. Not because we're limiting who can download the server-side app. If a server wants cheaters to come in, then they're welcome to not run RenGuard. And if you don't download the client-side RenGuard, then you can't get into the servers who run it. Bottom line. People who run servers do it with no compensation and often cost, and they have EVERY RIGHT to limit who can be in their servers. If they (we) say we only want RenGuard people to be in their servers, that's our right as server owners.

Simple solutions...

Iris2003Not everyone wants to be forced to use this product

Simple, don't. No one has a gun to your head saying that you HAVE to download it, or that you HAVE to install it, or that you HAVE to use it. Not every server is going to have it. But since those servers don't have it, you might as well not play because they will be most likely full of cheats. But it's your choice. No one is forcing anyone to do anything.

Easier yet. Don't visit the Lobbies. I don't. I play the game. :rolleyes:

Iris2003Quote:It's not a game. It's just a method of advertising RenGuard.

Renguard isn't Beta ,Alpha or public

Information gathered suggests that it's nothing more than a team effort to develop and implement an Anti cheat for renegade.

What bothers me is the misuse of the WOL lobby's / Servers to Advertise a product that isn't even at the beta stage let alone finished.

I have watched people use the same method you are using to Advertise cheats; I don't see your behavior any better than theirs.

Players come to play games not to be forced to read advertising games that are locked. (Games that have a URL but you can't join because it's locked)

With the official Rene forums, your website n00bstories.com and many other Renegade fan sites speaking about Renguard, what exactly was the need to make a game purely to advertise a product that isn't even finished yet? Don't you think everyone knows about it yet or something?

I personally feel you have misused your account / SN and CD to Illegally advertise a 3rd party Domain. I ask that you stop now or I will be forced to report you to EA.

I realize your cause, however I brought this game and agreed to the AUP and I don't intend to see people like you abuse this AUP because you think your cause is worthy and we should all accept your law.

I Noticed on another post, one of your site fans, warranto has said that only the respectable servers will be using renguard and that if I don't have this well then I won't be able to play on respected servers, I think this pretty much sums it all up.

If we don't conform to your standards then we are not worthy? is that it ?

I think you should set an example and conform to your own standards, a step towards that would be to stop misusing the Renegade game server's to advertise a product that already breaches the AUP of Renegade.

Not everyone wants to be forced to use this product, and not everyone wants to see the constant advertisements about it on the Rene Lobby's, there is enough chit chat in the lobby's and games that everyone knows about it, OVERKILL IS NOT NEEDED OR WANTED.

I have spoken to EA before in reference to unwanted harassment in the Rene lobby's and I have no problem speaking to them again about the Blatant disregard you have shown for the AUP.
