<http://clancenter.clanbbf.com>

This is a new site just opened. It deals with clans of every game and of all types. It should provide some information on organization and leading as well as help you get your clan known, advertised, etc. We have many features that will be done so make sure to register for our forums and also check back to our site to see when these features come!

excerpt From Friend

This is the most stupid assed website in the entire world. I don't see the need for it when you have other established websites that already do this shit for you. Like what the fuck is in these guys' minds? I can't believe they wasted a good part of their life to do this stupid shit.

Holy fuck.

I'm gonna go barf.
