U.S. Navy Capt. Ouimette is the XO of NAS, Pensacola. Here is a copy of the speech he gave earlier this month. A wonderful and accurate account of why we are in trouble today.

America WAKE UP!

That's what we think we heard on the 11th of September 2001 and maybe it was, but I think it should have been "Get Out of Bed!" In fact, I think the alarm clock has been buzzing since 1979 and we have continued to hit the snooze button and roll over for a few more minutes of peaceful sleep since then.

It was a cool fall day in November 1979 in a country going through a religious and political upheaval when a group of Iranian students attacked and seized the American Embassy in Tehran. This seizure was an outright attack on American soil; it was an attack that held the world's most powerful country hostage and paralyzed a Presidency. The attack on this sovereign US embassy set the stage for the events to follow for the next 23 years.

America was still reeling from the aftermath of the Viet Nam experience and had a serious threat from the Soviet Union when then, President Carter, had to do something. He chose to conduct a clandestine raid in the desert. The ill-fated mission ended in ruin, but stood as a symbol of America's inability to deal with terrorism. America's military had been decimated and downsized / right sized since the end of the Viet Nam war. A poorly trained, poorly equipped and poorly organized military was called on to execute a complex mission that was doomed from the start.

Shortly after the Tehran experience, Americans began to be kidnaped and killed throughout the Middle East. America could do little to protect her citizens living and working abroad. The attacks against US soil continued. In April of 1983 a large vehicle packed with high explosives was driven into the US Embassy compound in Beirut. When it explodes, it kills 63 people. The alarm went off again and America hit the Snooze Button once more. Then just six short months later a large truck heavily laden down with over 2500 pounds of TNT smashed through the main gate of the US Marine Corps headquarters in Beirut. 241 US servicemen are killed. America mourns her dead and hit the Snooze Button once more. Two months later in December 1983, another truck loaded with explosives is driven into the US Embassy in Kuwait, and America continues her slumber. The following year, in September 1984, another van was driven into the gates of the US Embassy in Beirut and America slept.

Soon the terrorism spreads to Europe. In April 1985 a bomb explodes in a restaurant frequented by US soldiers in Madrid. Then in August a Volkswagen loaded with explosives is driven into the main gate of the US Air Force Base at Rhein-Main, 22 are killed and the Snooze Alarm is buzzing louder and louder as US soil is continually attacked. Fifty-nine days later a cruise ship, the Achille Lauro is hijacked and we watched as an American in a wheelchair is singled out of the passenger list and executed. The terrorists then shift their tactics to bombing civilian airliners when they bomb TWA Flight 840 in April of 1986 that killed 4 and the most tragic bombing, Pan Am Flight 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland in 1988, killing 259. America wants to treat these terrorist acts as

Up alarm is louder and louder.

The terrorists decide to bring the fight to America. In January 1993, two CIA agents are shot and killed as they enter CIA headquarters in Langley, Virginia. The following month, February 1993, a group of terrorists are arrested after a rented van packed with explosives is driven into the underground parking garage of the World Trade Center in New York City. Six people are killed and over 1000 are injured. Still this is a crime and not an act of war? The Snooze alarm is depressed again.

Then in November 1995 a car bomb explodes at a US military complex in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia killing seven service men and women. A few months later in June of 1996, another truck bomb explodes only 35 yards from the US military compound in Dhahran, Saudi Arabia. It destroys the Khobar Towers, a US Air Force barracks, killing 19 and injuring over 500.

The terrorists are getting braver and smarter as they see that America does not respond decisively. They move to coordinate their attacks in a simultaneous attack on two US embassies in Kenya and Tanzania. These attacks were planned with precision, they kill 224. America responds with cruise missile attacks and goes back to sleep.

The USS Cole was docked in the port of Aden, Yemen for refueling on 12 October 2000, when a small craft pulled along side the ship and exploded killing 17 US Navy Sailors. Attacking a US War Ship is an act of war, but we sent the FBI to investigate the crime and went back to sleep.

And of course you know the events of 11 September 2001. Most Americans think this was the first attack against US soil or in America. How wrong they are. America has been under a constant attack since 1979 and we chose to hit the snooze alarm and roll over and go back to sleep.

In the news lately we have seen lots of finger pointing from every high official in government over what they knew and what they didn't know. But if you've read the papers and paid a little attention I think you can see exactly what they knew. You don't have to be in the FBI or CIA or on the National Security Council to see the pattern that has been developing since 1979. The President is right on when he says we are engaged in a war. I think we have been in a war for the past 23 years and it will continue until we as a people decide enough is enough.

America has to "Get out of Bed" and act decisively now. America has changed forever. We have to be ready to pay the price and make the sacrifice to ensure our way of life continues. We cannot afford to hit the Snooze Button again and roll over and go back to sleep. We have to make the terrorists know that in the words of Admiral Yamamoto after the attack on Pearl Harbor "that all they have done is to awaken a sleeping giant."

Thank you very much.

Dan Ouimette
Pensacola Civitan
19 Feb 2003

Perhaps this will help those of you who slept through history class know why we are at war now.

Ya we just had a survivor of sept 11th talk at my school. He said he wasnt sure about this war until he ehard bush say "lets fight it with out soldiers, our marines or navy and our airforxe, instead of later with our police and firemen." He also said he hopes we kick Saddams ass. People do really need to realize that no matter how out of the blue this is it is still abetetr thing to get Saddam out.

The UPI on March 21st

Lucky Break for Jordan

<http://www.upi.com/view.cfm?StoryID=20030321-023627-5923r>

A group of American anti-war demonstrators who came to Iraq with Japanese human shield volunteers made it across the border today with 14 hours of uncensored video, all shot without Iraqi government minders present. Kenneth Joseph, a young American pastor with the Assyrian Church of the East, told UPI the trip "had shocked me back to reality." Some of the Iraqis he interviewed on camera "told me they would commit suicide if American bombing didn't start. They were willing to see their homes demolished to gain their freedom from Saddam's bloody tyranny. They convinced me that Saddam was a monster the likes of which the world had not seen since Stalin and Hitler. He and his sons are sick sadists. Their tales of slow torture and killing made me ill, such as people put in a huge shredder for plastic products, feet first so they could hear their screams as bodies got chewed up from foot to head."

THIS is exactly why people use Nazi Germany & Hitler in their analogies of Saddam & what Iraq USE to be like. People kept wonder and some even complaining about these types of analogies. I'd suggest taking up that issue with THE IRAQI PEOPLE because it seems to be their opinion also. As you can see above the Iraqi people are HELLA PISSED THAT US BIG-HEADED SADISTIC AMERICANS are they're saving them from a monster on the level of Stalin & Hitler.

I'd like to make a question known that many people sometimes neglect to ask:

Why do the Terrorists do what they did?

I in no way think that what the terrorists did was right, and in no way could it go unpunished, but why would they bother committing terrorism without a reason? Perhaps if their reasons were addressed prior to the act committed, then a peaceful resolution may have come about. This is quite broad, and probably doesn't work in every situation. But ask yourself that question.

I won't go into a depth analysis of the Iraqi War unless I feel the need to, but that is my view on it. As undefined as I made it.

I had a former manager of mine at Radioshack whose daughter was in the US Navy. In fact, she was stationed aboard the USS Cole. She had in fact just finished eating, had put her tray up, and got 5 feet away from the mess hall door when she was thrown up against the ceiling in a terrorist act. I remember coming into to work that day, not knowing anything about it and seeing my manager on the floor crying his eyes out when he finally heard from his daughter nearly 8 hours after the explosion.

I met up with again yesterday, and when the subject of the war came up, he simply said that he hopes they all (terrorists) die.

This speech is a really good point. How many more families and victims must suffer before we finally do anything about it. Hopefully, no more. It is time that we acted instead of react. It's time that our soldiers face their enemies head on, rather than sit around and wait for them to sneak up. It's time to not only destroy terrorists organizations, but also the countries that hide and support them.

I know the main reason for terrorism is in protest to US policies and troops in the middle east, but honestly, if these people could govern themselves without killing each other, then we wouldn't be over there. Personally, two years ago, I was of the opinion that we should just pull all our troops and assets out of the middle east and let them wipe each other out. Of course, that's not possible, because for all the countries that scream against the US being in the middle east, there would be an equal number just as angry for the US pulling out of the middle east, and would try and blow us up anyways.

In the middle east and other countries there are dictators,
Dictators whom hate their people and the people hate them.

These dictators are supported by US.

even US had a hand in putting them in power.

Example.

Countries in the middle east.

Egypt

Saudi arabia and others.

Some in South America.

some dictators receive AID packages other receive military packages in return for securing US interests more than their own countries interests.

Many people around the world hold the US responsible for their poverty and their incompetent governments.

These countries would rather push American interests first than the interest of well being of their populations.

US after WW2 took huge interest in the middle east due to its vast oil reserves. that's when it started

Secondly. the bombs which the Israelis use to kill, murder Palestinians, these same bombs have a SIGN saying MADE IN USA.

Another reason people get angry at US. because America is supplying bombs to Israel free of charge.

These bombs are used to murder civilians

From 70's era we noticed attacks against US worldwide by individuals these people are showing their grievances of US foreign policy.

It's affecting them, it's affecting their families, it's affecting their wellbeing of their country.

Have you noticed that these attacks never occur to countries such as Belgium, Austria, Holland, Germany and other nations which hold the same ideals such as freedoms and democracy as the US.

This proves freedom and democracy has nothing to do with these attacks.

Attacks only occur to the US because of their foreign policy.

If United States stops meddling and interfering with other countries then these attacks will never occur.

Top officials even the intelligent officials of the US are saying the attacks against Iraq will cause more attacks against the US.

Some have even resigned.

<http://www.rense.com/general35/tearr.htm>

There are mass protests around the world against US action in Iraq.

Now more people are on the list hating America because of her foreign policy.

Former allies are on the list.

France , germany and russia as well as some other european countries are NOW against US foreign policy. Europe and other Nations will RE-ARM themselves as the UN and other international treaties and organisations will no longer protect any nation against US aggression.

WW3 has just been started by US.

those countries in the middle east ASKED for our help. practically begged the united states to come in and save them from whatever big bad neighbor was threatening to blow them up that particular week. As far as Isrealies go, I assume you mean their constant invasions of the west bank and the gaza strip. If terrorists would stop blowing crap up, the isreali army wouldn't have to go and mow down a city block every 2 weeks.

The above article talks about US getting attacked across the globe. That has nothing to do with WW3.

US has attacked and a nation unilaterally, without any backing from US or its close allies. And while doing so belittles its allies arrogantly.

UN failed to do anything about it, this as a result made

France, germany russia and china as well as some other nations come closer as a result of US action.

Europe is divided.

Recently france, belgium and germany announced a closer military. they have for the first time singled out United Kingdom.

This military pact which will include russia and to an extent china.

Countrys will RE-ARM to counter the huge US military. As of now any international body, treaty is void.

No country is safe .

Before countries were safe due to international organisations and treatys .

There was peace in europe for 50 years after WW2 due to international organisations like UN.

WW3 will be near.

lots of wars after this will occur if the US continues it's unilateral policy.

If the poeple of the US standby and let the mad man Bush and his cronies continue the world would far less safer.

for the first time Germany in 50 years never had the nerve to standup against US policy. it has never ever done that prior to WW2.

Germany, france and russia see this US policy directly in conflict with their own National policy.

No one in them countries ever asked for US help.

US only helps itself.

The understand their problem is with their incompetent governments which are backed by the US.

They are called Cleint/puppet states.

The people want to overtrhow them but they get locked up tortured and even killed.

There are many prisons in Egypt and saudi which do this.

Do ever see on TV in the past poeple protesting burning American flags in the middle east. Here they are saying Amercian government stop meddling in our country, stop supporting Isreal.

isreal on a daily basis continues to bulldoze palistianian homes and farms which they have owned for centurys they are evicting them to create settlements for isreals.

Making a greater isreal in west bank at the expence of palistinions

Now if someone came to your house and tried to evict your family so they can steal your house. What will you do about it.

what you just going to stand there do nothing and let it happen.

Were the heck you and your family will live. on the streets. or will you try to get you house back.

I can agree with you on one thing. Israel is a country the US should use its influence to chang its way.

But you forget. THE Kurds did ask for our help 12 years ago. The UN kept us from doing so. Again the UN showing it supported the killer Saddam more than the kurds.

Terrorism can never be eradicated by military action (alone). It's roots lie in poverty, bad education and such.

So we should give Iraq our income tax earnings, send them to school, and team them morals like "don't blow up other countries shit, don't torture and rape your women, etc" ?

Hans & The UN aren't exactly the sharpest tools in the UN's shed.

An Update on Inspection Executive Chairman of UNMOVIC, Dr Hans Blix 27th January 2003
Iraq has on the whole cooperated rather well so far with UNMOVIC in this field. The most important point to make is that access has been provided to all sites we have wanted to inspect and with one exception it has been prompt. We have further had great help in building up the infrastructure of our office in Baghdad and the field office in Mosul. Arrangements and services for our plane and our helicopters have been good. The environment has been workable.

You idiots

I guess I shouldn't be surprised, the UN isn't very apt when it comes to learning lessons. You dont let 'the enemy' build your CENTRAL COMMAND & FIELD OFFICE. :rolleyes:

USA : Uhm hey Saddam we're going to be kicking your ass shortly, can you have some infrastructure erected to support our troops, oh ya-make sure you BUG THE FUCK out of the communications ports & rooms, thanks.

Saddam : uhm..ok

What do ya give the dictator that has everything ?

A free pass with Hans & the goof troop.

Really now lets not play into his hand tooo much, dont lean tooo far over Saddam may see your cards, ah but what the fuck he's a good natured guy - he wouldn't do some shit like that...

:rolleyes: Was the entire UN Inspection team asleep during the 50's when the USA let the Soviets build their Embassy there, -bugs everywhere-. Makes it much less of a *shock* that they didn't discover much when out 'inspecting'. There is a very important aspect of inspections...the element of SURPRISE.

The Middle East needs better income equality, and oil revenues need to be used to build school, educate the people and setting up healthcare systems, so the economy can develop.
