You'd need a new webserver if you was going to cover CS

No, really why would n00bstories want to cover somethig like CS? There are enough n00bs out there playing it, do we really want to hear about them? There are so many hacks for the game it would just be pointless. CaptainBigWig who is a big part of RenEvoEpoch came from CS before joining us in Planetside and he was at war with the hackers for over 2 years - he recorded over 150 hacks and was trying to always prevent them, it's a neverending battle with CS.

Bring n00bstories to halo so we can keep up the rivalry between clanwars and n00bstories

That's actually a good reason to leave n00bstories out of Halo

I have a list, but it's at home. I am in the process of redesigning the back-end (the stuff you don't see) of the site to handle multiple games with a smooth transition. I'm also including a way for you to NOT see anything related to games you don't care about.

Have you seen my sketch?

-it's just the shape, it'll really be far from plain, believe me.-

Good point. I was just thinking of a game with lots of n00bs that could be one of the new games because I thought it would be a big hit but that is good arguments.

There is no rivalry. It's all one-sided. We really don't give a shit about ClanWars.

Halo IS one of the 9-10 games we're moving into. In fact, with the new system, I can move into another game in about 2 seconds. The hard part is just marketing.

Regarding CS, I probably won't move to that game just because the community there IS so friggin large. We'll see how we fare with the newer games rather than trying to break into a older established community.

That sounds cool i can understand those reasones because that is the only thing i dont like about CS is becasue of all the cheatig thats there. In that game its like you cant be good because if ur good ur a cheater and if u suck ur a n00b theres no middle ground. I never played halo but once but a lot of my freinds are tellin me to get it so i can play with them so ill get it anyway but does anyone know when it comes out and where a good site is for me to see what it looks like/?????
