It's that time again! Listen up in 20 minutes for your favorite hits from the best decade for music!

<http://radio.n00bstories.com:5150/listen.pls>

You need WinAmp or some real music player to listen to the streaming media.

Convince me to code it this weekend. Although after days like today, I almost want to throw in the towel... but I'm not a quitter.

5 PM CST until 1 AM CST. Beanyhead takes over at 9 PM and continues the 80s hits.

Works perfect.

Ah okay so:

Aircraftkiller 5pm-9pm

Beanyhead 9pm-1am

Is that going to be the schedule every week? Im getting my computer and stuff back soon, and I have tons of 80s mp3s, so I might join the fray at some point

If you want, you can alternate with Beanyhead every week or take over for me at 5 if I'm unable to make it on time.

You can listen to it with:

Winamp
MusicMATCH jukebox
RealOne player

Those are the ones I KNOW of.

To broadcast, you need Winamp 2.x, not 3.x
