Thanks, BA!

ConKil stands behind you as well. I think most 'legit' and hardworking clans appreciate the work (or proposed work) of the RenGuard team. Let's just keep a realistic update going on the progress to appease those of us that are impatient.

We have a clan match on hold and its part of a tourney but we so affrraid to play with no cheat program. It's not that we think they will cheat but who knows that a person in our own clan isnt using something. No one can really be sure there own members are not cheating let alone the next clan.

I kind of know how you feel about a date cause if we had a date then we all could be at ease. If I recall they said a couple weeks so Im hoping its by the end of next week

Thanks again TEAM for all your hard work and support

isnt EMINEM spr in CONKIL? aka Silenced or w/e

Eminem was one of the first people to make and spread a cheat based on a mod for the demo. Has showed off his mod making abilities and cheat making abilites in the demo community, and yes there are quiet a few of us who still play the demo even ones like me that have the full version.

Anyway he took it upon himself to spread the afformentioned cheats and in effect ruin the game for quiet a while until some people came up with ways to ban in demo using firewall. Anway i woudlnt doubt that he had some imput in the cheats that now work for full version.

conkil support? :rolleyes:

As a leader of the clan I will address it with him. If it was a demo thing I'll ensure it stayed there.

Our clan is founded on the principle of non-cheaters. It will not be tolerated.

He is in my clan, and I assure you it will be taken care of one way or another. Regardless, I do not feel he cheats anymore --- especially since he has gone out of his way to assist me with my anticheat movement/development.

Eminem relled a mod for server ownears to install so people couldent buy the 2nd mobius skin or else the demo server crashed.

Some people claimed that eminem cheated on the servers that had this mod installed. I hosted a server with this mod also and I cant remeber if someone actually cheated or not.
