Hey i have used the exact same rectile that came with the game *the little green circle* ever since i started playing, but 2 nights ago when a freind slept over we were looken at skins and saw a blue one that ive seen lots in screens and stuff at cncammo so i downloaded it, but now i think its kinda throwing off my aim and i would like my old one back so if anyone would be kind enough to put the original one in a zip and give it to me it would be much appreciated.

Just delete the files which you downloaded from cncammo and it will come back.

I'm normally not too nitpicky of a grammar nazi, but I thought I'd post something this time because while a reticle is something that helps you aim, rectile isn't a word. It does, however, sound a bit too close to rectal.
