I've been trying to track down some old Renegade video clips. I found a page on TiberianSun.com that looks like it hasn't been updated for a while, but still had the file links that didn't work. I can't find any other site that has these files available for download, all of them are dead links. If anyone knows a site that has these specific files, could you please post it up?

churchbig.zip
nodbasebig.zip
nodbuggybig.zip
renegade_e3.zip

You may think why I would won't to see them as they're so old. I just wanted to have a look at them as I never saw these Renegade videos.

I think the westwood ftp server had a bunch of these. Or they did in the past, i haven't checked there in a while. Might be worth a look.

I got two movies from E3 2000 and also the old preview video.
<http://www.cannis.net/commando/video.shtml>

I have checked PlanetCNC and the old movie download links at FilePlanet are dead

I see there's some interest to make C&C Commando game true again?
With this person as the main character instead of Locke's son?

I don't have enough space on my ISP account to upload all three of them, so I uploaded NodBaseBig and NODBuggyBig. I'll upload the other one, Churchbig, later, after I deleted the other two again. I only have 10Mb webspace, and although they said that 15 Mb won't bother them much, uploading all three will take 23Mb...

Churchbig is the least impressive one, either, it's mostly Havoc (with the Logan skin) walking around inside the church from the 2nd or so mission. At the end he exits the church to a field/village like that one in the first mission. I also have a trailer, but it's the same one as the last movie from that Cannis site.

Thanks for uploading them.

Is ChurchBig.zip going to be uploaded? From what you said, it seems crap, but I'd still like to see it.

I deleted NodBaseBig and NodBuggyBig (go to Seaman's site for them) and uploaded Churchbig.
Download it here.

And I agree that the old buggy looks better, more TD Nod-ish, and there is a cool getting-in-the-vehicle animation. I like the buildings in the Nod base either, although most of them
I don't find particularly better or worse than the current ones.

When Cermak joined to Westwood, he wanted to the team remake the game...
Kane existing uninjured in 2020, arcade physics and a lot of game modes cut... etc. And all this would make the game more appealing to FPS gamers and give more money. :rolleyes:

The animation is called h_a_v42a
For exit anim use this: h_a_v62a

There are many other cool anims.. like pulling out gun from back.

Man, those videos are awesom. I wish they would have kept it the way it was and not remake it. I think it would have been a lot cooler than it is now.

I can't believe they changed it, the maps, buildings, vehicles, even how the dude swings his gun, looks almost exactly like TD, even the logan model for the commando looks correct with his red headband and dress (see the same red headband on the commando unit in TD).

What caused them to do the remake?????
