A couple of wallpaper's I made out of some nice screenshots

Will prob end up making a few more soon,edited my hud_main.dds to be transparent...so they will actually look a bit better.

Who here cares? He made some good looking wallpapers... Instead of saying you can do better... Do it... and keep your mouth shut about yours being better. No need to have a "mine is bigger" contest when you are both for the same cause.

More like two Renegade screenshots with fancy text on them.

AKA: Preview Screenshots.

Nice work there Titan, maybe create your self a tag to put on each of your wallpapers... like a signature..

Also maybe try some blending and try put a meaning across, like loads of GDI tanks and stuff would show that your putting across "GDI are teh Big Gun0rz" and with Nod you can put across something like "Nod are Teh Sneak0rz" with Stanks and such.

Good job overall, room for improvement!

I used paintshoppro to create the text and to clone brush over the credit's and time remaining text and erase the names from the game aswell as my name and some other junk on the SS's...I'll post up a link the the transparent HUD once i get it uploaded.
