Please email me at renguardstuff@n00bstories.com if you have a version of Renegade other than English or German.

We need:

Chinese

French

Japanese

Korean

Without these versions in our allowed list, players with those versions won't be able to use RenGuard.

Thanks!

Ask on GSA. There are lots of people from Quebec, Belgium and France. I don't know about the nationalities in WOL. But best bet is to ask in person.

I know for a fact that you can find at least one French-speaking person on GSA.

I doubt you'll find many Chinese/Japanese/Koreans around here...although I do remember there was one Asian-looking guy on the Renalert forums (see photo thread), but that doesn't guarantee that he knows Chinese/Japanese/Korean ofcourse.

We need the other language versions of certain Renegade files, since they differ from the US version we need them to add to our database so that RG will recognize them as "good" files.

Who hasn't? He also said that he never used it online. He is honest.

But this is OT.

Okay.. time for a status update.

We have:

French - thanks to Renardin6

Chinese - thanks to Adad

German - thanks to me

Korean - Thanks to G7Admin and Adad for establishing contact to him

We're only missing the japanese version. I was looking for some sort of japanese fansite, but I could't find anything. Adad says he knows only one japanese renegade player .. and that one seemed to have left.

If anyone knows any japanese servers or people, please get in touch with us. Thanks

Perhaps there are some ex-Westwood employees that can get hold of the Japanese version?

Well if no one plays in Japanese... why make it. Then if a player comes along and needs the Japanese version, they can upload it correct?
