Does anyone know of the soundtrack file names? I've got all the other C&C music on CD's but through the XCC Mixer, I can't find the files for Renegade. I'm assuming they are in the always.dat (which by the way- some of the .wav's are pretty funny), but with everything being so poorly labeled, I'm having trouble finding the files.

I know they aren't on the disks, so they have to be somewhere in my Data file. Any ideas?

Psssssssst... Why not tell everyone where you found them in case others may want to get them too!

There is only one place you can get them from, always.dat of course.

If you want to listen to them online then you can just use the WW juke box

<http://www.frankklepacki.com/> is better because the music is CD quality. And it's official

Yeah I know, but so is the WW Jukebox, Frank Klepaki has allowed the WW jukebox to host his music.

His website is good and does have some of the C&C Renegade tracks but not all of them.

I know they are in the always.dat. What I was saying is he could have given information on where in the always.dat they were.

Well there are the only mp3 files in the always.dat and most of them are the music. All speech and other sound is wav format.

General Havoc's website is good and does have some of the C&C Renegade tracks but not all of them.

But there are two tracks that are nowhere to be found in Renegade:
Great Shot Remix and Fight Win Prevail Remix.

They are more true to original C&C's style than other Renegade tracks.

I meant the originals only - which was what the topic was originally.
